How do you spell Mr. Benske's <sup>3</sup> Washington office. Is that something that you name? 4 still do after you received your promotion? A. B, like boy, e-n-s-k-e. 5 A. Yes. O. You mentioned that part of your 6 O. What kind of office does job responsibilities in the government affairs region was to be responsible for federal and AmerisourceBergen have in Washington? We have a small office of six -state affairs. there's six of us, and three of us are federal What does that mean? 10 registered lobbyists, and then we have a manager 10 A. So we are primarily, as I said, <sup>11</sup> who is an office manager, an admin, and that's 11 responsible for monitoring the legislative and 12 it. And the -- sorry -- vice president of policies that the state and federal governments <sup>13</sup> are developing and reporting that back to our 13 policy. 14 Q. So a total of six employees; is <sup>14</sup> employees and our executives, and our other 15 primary responsibility is to educate legislators that right? <sup>16</sup> who represent our operations around the country 16 That's in Washington. And then we have two remote employees who are state so they know who we are, they understand our 18 government affairs lobbyists. business, and we provide -- we serve as a resource to them. So if they have questions 19 Q. What office do those employees 20 work at? about how the pharmaceutical supply chain works 21 or distribution, we can supply that. A. Out of their homes. 22 You referred to those employees 22 Q. You earlier mentioned advocacy as O. as state government affairs employees. Is that 23 one of the elements of your responsibilities or

How about any regulations issued by the FDA regarding marketing of drugs? A. No. Q. How about other distributors, have you commented on regulations affecting other distributors? A. Any regulation affecting us would likely affect other distributors. Q. When you mentioned Stacie Heller's work, you said she primarily oversees the public comments developing those in coordination with our customers. Do you recall that? A. Yes. Q. Okay. What did you mean when you said "in coordination with our customers"? MR. NICHOLAS: Object to the form. So my question is did AmerisourceBergen ever form any other agreements like that with other pharmacies?  MR. NICHOLAS: Object to the form.  THE WITNESS: Yes. BY MR. CLUFF:  Q. Do you recall which ones?  A. Rite Aid.  Q. Do you remember who you would have spoken to about that kind of an agreement at Rite Aid?  A. Yong Choe.  Q. Okay. Any other pharmacies that you had agreements with?  A. No.  Q. How about other distributors, did Amerisource ever make agreements like this one with Walgreens with other distributors?

I know that you're the company you work for is asserting what's called a common interest privilege. The plaintiffs are disputing the basis for that privilege, but until it's been resolved, I would caution you not to give me answers about legal strategy that you're aware of that was formed in conjunction with the HDA.  Does that make sense?  A. Yes. Q. Okay, great.

I just wanted to take a step back and kind of understand your day-to-day work as the senior vice president of government affairs.  What do you kind of do on a daily basis for AmerisourceBergen?  A. Well, as I think I mentioned earlier, my job is to educate elected officials

- <sup>1</sup> business and, also, to help communicate what's
- <sup>2</sup> going on in the policy world to our company. So
- <sup>3</sup> I have meetings, I spend a lot of time here at
- <sup>4</sup> our headquarters. I visit our facilities around
- <sup>5</sup> the country, and I take legislators and
- <sup>6</sup> policymakers on tours so they can see it and
- <sup>7</sup> understand it.
- 8 And I -- I am on a lot of
- conference calls.
- 10 O. All the lawyers in this room sympathize with your involvement on those
- conference calls.
- 13 How often would you say that you
- <sup>14</sup> are meeting with like we'll limit it to federal
- <sup>15</sup> legislators?
- 16 A. So little less than I used to
- <sup>17</sup> because now I'm kind of overseeing the whole
- <sup>18</sup> department and our policy development, so I
- 19 would say 20% of my time is actually
- <sup>20</sup> face-to-face with legislators and staff, 20 to
- 21 25%.
- 22 O. And so for you that 20 to 25% is
- 23 down from what it used to be?
- A little bit, yes. A.

<sup>1</sup> staff to brief them.

- Q. How about state legislators,
- <sup>3</sup> before you became the senior vice president, how

- 4 much time do you think you spent communicating
- <sup>5</sup> or meetings with state legislators and/or their
- staff?

10

- A. Very little.
- 8 How about now as the senior vice O.
- president, has there been any change?
  - A. No.
- 11 Q. These conference calls that you
- referred to, how often do you think you're on a
- conference call with either a federal or a state
- legislator or their staffers?
- Well, most of my conference calls
- are with our internal company people, and then I
- have conference calls with the people throughout
- Washington, and our trade association calls are
- regular, and so I would say 50/50
- internal/external.
- Q. And how much of the time do you
- 22 think of your, you know, total day do you spend
- on internal calls?
  - Well, it varies, but anywhere

Page 263

- So before you became the senior
- <sup>2</sup> vice president, were you meeting with federal
- <sup>3</sup> legislators more often than you are now?
- Well, a lot of times legislators
- and staff so -- yes.
- How much before you became the
- senior vice president were you meeting with
- federal legislators and/or their staff? 9
  - Probably more like 35%. A.
- 10 That change, was that -- was that work pushed on to the other associates that you
- oversee in the government affairs office?
- A. I share this responsibility with 13
- 14 them, so, yes, they -- they do a lot more of the
- meetings that I used to do on -- with
- <sup>16</sup> legislators.

19

- 17 Q. When I asked you about federal
- legislators, you included with them their staff?
  - Α. Yes.
- 20 Do you communication with O.
- legislators oftentimes through their staff?
- 22 Well, we spend probably more time educating staff than we actually educate the
- <sup>24</sup> members directly because they rely on their

- <sup>1</sup> from 10 to 20% of my day.
  - And how about external calls,
- about the same?
- Oh, I'm sorry. Total. Internal
- <sup>5</sup> calls so 10 to 15 and 10 to 15, something like
- that.

24

- We previously talked about like
- fundraisers. How often would you say that you
- attend fundraisers for federal or state
- legislators?
  - So, again, that is -- that is --A.
- relates to the time of year. When Congress is
- 13 in Washington, we attend a lot more than we do
- <sup>14</sup> when they're not in Washington, but then we do
- weekend events as well, so I don't know -- do
- you -- I don't know how to quantify, you know,
  - probably I attend 50 fundraisers a year.
- 18 And that would include some
- 19 weekend fundraisers, you said?
  - Yes. A.
- 21 Okay. And that's skewed more Q.
- 22 towards the times when Congress is in session,
- you said?

24 A. Yes.
